

NORTH SIDE PARK BAPTIST CHURCH-YARD.
Formerly Mt. Zion Baptist Church.

Location: Number 1877 Howell Mill Road, N.W., Atlanta.

Recorded Nov. 4, 1930.

Embry,	H.H.	Grave marked by granite box-shaped tomb, inscribed:  H.H. EMBRY  Born Nov. 2nd. 1805 Died Nov. 18th. 1877.
Johns.		Among some 30 graves in this old cemetery, un- marked except for uninscribed field stones, are several members of the Johns family, pioneers of the neighborhood. They include the patriarch of the family:
Johns.	John D.	Died during a smallpox epidem- ic in 1868 or 1869 and his wife
Johns.	Nancy	Also died during same epidemic, a week after her husband.

Information about the Johns graves furnished by Miss Sarah Huff, March 10, 1932.

North Side Park Baptist Chyd. (con't).

William R., Sgt.

Grave marked by small obelisk and surrounded by an iron pipe rail fence.

East

Wm. R. Moore of Rome, Ga.

Born

Oct. 17, 1842

Died

July 17, 1864.

This monument erected by his brothers and sisters and dedicated by Wheeler's Confederate Cavalry Association.

West

Sergt. Wm. R. Moore
Company G, 1st Ga. Rec't.
Wheeler's Cavalry.

Killed in battle near this spot
July 17, 1864.

Distinguished for bravery in many battles, he died at last with his spurs on.